MONOCABIN GALLERY

A habitable art gallery

When art meets design in the setup of an unforgettable stay.

EXPLORING THE CONCEPT

The idea of a habitable gallery is to give the space a reason of being beyond a fully functional holiday house. The interventions of the artists remain very respectful of the spirit of the place, starting with its architecture. They provide tone, but do not pin down the context. Quite the opposite; they reveal it. They act like imprints which one can choose to ignore, analyze or fall in love with.

The intention is to offer to our host the possibility to buy an actual piece of the house as souvenir representing at the same time the cultural context surrounding.

Monocabin by Mandalaki Studio

The studio mixes analytical research with creative thinking in order to identify new business opportunities. By combining functional, technical and aesthetic research, each project is the result of a constant dialogue between our different voices and skills and it is aimed at reaching both essentiality and functionality. Our main partners are companies, startups, no profit organisations and universities. We constantly look for new collaborations and partnerships where design can provide value to the business.
